HHC ACO INC.

AS OF AUGUST ___, 2014

Article 1.

Definitions

Section 1.01 Name. The “Corporation” shall mean HHC ACO INC., its successors and assigns.

Section 1.02 Board. The “Board” shall mean the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Article 2.

Office

Section 2.01 Office. The office of the Corporation shall be located in the County of New York and the State of New York.

Section 2.02 Additional Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places within the State of New York as the Board may from time to time designate or the business of the Corporation may require.

Article 3.

Membership

Section 3.01 Members. The sole Member of the Corporation shall be the New York City Health and Hospitals Corporation.

Section 3.02 Annual Meeting. A meeting of the Member shall be held annually on such date and at such time and place as may be fixed by the Board, and adopted by the Member, for the purpose of electing Directors, receiving annual reports of the Board and Officers, and for the transaction of such other business as may be brought before the meeting.
Section 3.03  Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Member may also be called at any time by the Member’s Chairman, by the Member or a majority of the Member’s Directors then in office, or as otherwise provided by law.

Section 3.04  Place and Time of Meetings. Meetings of the Member may be held at such place and at such time as may be fixed in the notice of the meeting.

Section 3.05  Open Meetings. Meetings of the Member shall be conducted within the requirements of the New York Open Meetings Law (Public Officers Law, Article 7).

Section 3.06  Participation by Videoconference. Unless otherwise prohibited by the New York Open Meetings Law, meetings of the Member may be conducted by means of videoconference communications equipment allowing all persons participating in the meeting to hear and see each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

Article 4.

Directors

Section 4.01  Annual Meeting. A meeting of the Board shall be held annually at such place within the State of New York, on such date and at such time as may be fixed by the Board, for the purpose of electing Officers, receiving annual reports of the Board and Officers, and for the transaction of such other business as may be brought before the meeting.

Section 4.02  Number. The number of Directors constituting the entire Board shall be fixed by the Member, but such number shall not be less than three.

Section 4.03  Election and Term of Office. The initial Directors of the Corporation shall be those persons specified in the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation. Thereafter, the Directors shall be elected by the Member at the annual meeting or at any regular or special meeting of the Member of the Corporation. Each Director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the Member and until such Director’s successor has been elected and qualified, or until his or her death, resignation or removal or the termination of his or her employment with any entity that has executed an ACO Participation Agreement or ACO Agreement with the Corporation.

Section 4.04  Powers and Duties. Subject to the provisions of law, of the Certificate of Incorporation and of these By-Laws, but in furtherance and not in limitation of any rights and powers thereby conferred, the Board shall have the control and management of the affairs and operations of the Corporation and shall exercise all the powers that may be exercised by the Corporation.

Section 4.05  Additional Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board may be held at such times as the Board may from time to time determine. Special meetings of the Board may also be called at any time by the Chairman or by a majority of the Directors then in office.

Section 4.06 Notice of Meetings. Except as otherwise provided by law, including without limitation, the New York Open Meetings Law (Public Officers Law, Article 7), no notice need be given of any annual or regular meeting of the Board. Notice of a special meeting of the Board shall be given by service upon each Director in person or by mailing the same to him at his or her post office address as it appears upon the books of the Corporation or by facsimile, telegraph, cable, email or other form of recorded communication at least four business days (Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays not being considered business days for the purpose of these By-Laws) if given by mailing the same, or at least 2 business days if given in person or by any other means of communication, before the date designated for such meeting specifying the place, date and hour of the meeting. Whenever all of the Directors shall have waived notice of any meeting either before or after such meeting, such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. A Director who shall be present at any meeting and who shall not have protested, prior to the meeting or at its commencement, the lack of notice to him, shall be deemed to have waived notice of such meeting. In any case, any acts or proceedings taken at a Directors’ meeting not validly called or constituted may be made valid and fully effective by ratification at a subsequent Directors’ meeting that is legally and validly called. Except as otherwise provided herein, notice of any Directors’ meeting or any waiver thereof need not state the purpose of the meeting, and, at any Directors’ meeting duly held as provided in these By-Laws, any business within the legal province and authority of the Board may be transacted.

Section 4.07 Place of Meetings. The Board may hold its meetings within the State of New York.

Section 4.08 Quorum. At any meeting of the Board, a majority of the Directors then in office shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. However, should a quorum not be present, a majority of the Directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time to another time and place, without notice other than announcement at such meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 4.09 Voting. At all meetings of the Board, each Director shall have one vote. Except as otherwise provided by the New York Not-For-Profit Corporation Law, the vote of a majority of the Directors present at the time of the vote, if a quorum is present at such time, shall be the act of the Board.

Section 4.10 Action Without a Meeting. Except as otherwise provided by law, including without limitation, the New York Open Meetings Law (Public Officers Law, Article 7), any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board or any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board or any such committee consent in writing to the adoption of a resolution authorizing the action. The resolution and the written consents thereto by the members of the Board or any such committee shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board or such committee.
Section 4.11 Removal. Any Director may be removed for any reason by the Member.

Section 4.12 Resignation. Any Director may resign from office at any time by delivering a resignation in writing to the Board of Directors, and the acceptance of the resignation, unless required by its terms, shall not be necessary to make the resignation effective.

Section 4.13 Vacancies. Any newly created directorships and any vacancy occurring on the Board arising at any time and from any cause may be filled by the Member. A Director elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor.

Section 4.14 Committee. The Board, by resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board, may designate from among the Directors an executive committee and other standing committees, each consisting of three or more Directors, to serve at the pleasure of the Board, and each of which, to the extent provided in such resolution, shall have the authority of the Board, except as to matters prohibited by Section 712 of the New York Not-For Profit Corporation Law. The Board may designate one or more Directors as alternate members of any such committee, who may replace any absent member or members at any meeting of such committee.

Section 4.15 Participation by Videoconference. Any one or more members of the Board or any committee thereof may participate in a meeting of the Board or such committee by means of a videoconference communications equipment allowing all persons participating in the meeting to hear and see each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

Section 4.16 Records. Minutes shall be kept of each meeting of the Board. Copies of the minutes of each such meeting shall be filed with the corporate records.

Article 5. Officers

Section 5.01 Election and Qualifications; Term of Office. The Officers of the Corporation shall be a Chairman, a Chief Executive Officer, one or more Vice Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The Officers shall be elected by the Board at the annual meeting or at any regular or special meeting of the Board and each Officer shall hold office for a term of one year and until such Officer’s successor has been elected or appointed and qualified, unless such Officer shall have resigned, shall have been removed as provided in Sections 10 and 11 of this Article 5, or shall have been terminated from his or her employment with any entity that has executed an ACO Participation Agreement or ACO Agreement with the Corporation. The same person may hold more than one office, except that the same person may not be both Chief Executive Officer and Secretary. The Board may appoint such other Officers as may be deemed desirable, including one or more other Vice-Presidents, one or more Assistant Secretaries, and one or more Assistant Treasurers. Such Officers shall serve for such period as the Board may designate.

Section 5.02 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in any office, whether because of death, resignation or removal or the termination of his or her employment with any entity that has executed an ACO Participation Agreement or ACO Agreement with the Corporation, with or without cause, or any other reason, shall be filled by the Board.

Section 5.03 General Powers of the Officers. All Officers as between themselves and the Corporation shall have such authority and perform such duties in the management of the Corporation as shall be provided in these By-Laws or, to the extent not so provided, by the Board.

Section 5.04 Powers and Duties of the Chairman. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board at which he or she is present and may call meetings of the Board or any committee when he or she deems necessary. The Chairman shall have such other powers and shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to the Chairman by the Board.

Section 5.05 Powers and Duties of the Chief Executive Officer. The Chief Executive Officer shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation and shall from time to time make such reports of the affairs and operations of the Corporation as the Board may direct and shall preside at all meetings of the Board. The Chief Executive Officer shall have such other powers and shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to the Chief Executive Officer by the Board.

Section 5.06 Powers and Duties of the Vice-Presidents. Each of the Vice-Presidents shall have such powers and shall perform such duties as may from time to time be assigned to such Vice President by the Board.

Section 5.07 Powers and Duties of the Secretary. The Secretary shall record and keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board. The Secretary shall be the custodian of, and shall make or cause to be made the proper entries in, the minute book of the Corporation and such books and records as the Board may direct. The Secretary shall be the custodian of the seal of the Corporation and shall affix such seal to such contracts, instruments and other documents as the Board or any committee thereof may direct. The Secretary shall have such other powers and shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to the Secretary by the Board.

Section 5.08 Powers and Duties of the Treasurer. The Treasurer shall be the custodian or custodians of all funds and securities of the Corporation. Whenever so directed by the Board, the Treasurer shall render a statement of the cash and other accounts of the Corporation, and the Treasurer shall cause to be entered regularly in the books and records of the Corporation to be kept for such purpose full and accurate accounts of the Corporation’s receipts and disbursements. The Treasurer shall at all reasonable times exhibit the books and accounts to any Director upon application at the principal office of the Corporation during business hours. The Treasurer shall have such other powers and shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to the Treasurer by the Board.

Section 5.09 Delegation. In case of the absence of any Officer of the Corporation, or for any other reason that the Board may deem sufficient, the Board may at any time and from time to time delegate all or any part of the powers or duties of any Officer to any other Officer or to any Director or Directors.

Section 5.10 Removal. Any Officer may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, by a vote of a majority of the Directors then in office at any meeting of the Board.

Section 5.11 Resignation. Any Officer may resign his or her office at any time, such resignation to be made in writing and to take effect immediately without acceptance by the Corporation.

Section 5.12 Agents and Employees. The Board of Directors may appoint agents and employees who shall have such authority and perform such duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may remove any agent or employee at any time with or without cause. Removal without cause shall be without prejudice to such person’s contract rights, if any, and the appointment of such persons shall not itself create contract rights.

Section 5.13 Compensation of Officers, Agents and Employees. The Corporation may pay compensation in reasonable amounts to agents and employees for services rendered, such amount to be fixed by the Board of Directors or, if the Board of Directors delegates power to any Officer or Officers, then as approved by such Officer or Officers.

Article 6.

Conflicts Of Interest

Chapter 68 of the Charter of the City of New York defines a "code of ethics" which outlines the standards of conduct governing the relationship between private interests and the proper discharge of official duties of all employees and directors of the New York City Health and Hospitals Corporation, including those who are working for the Corporation or who are directors of the Corporation. Chapter 68 embodies an extensive recitation of acts that constitute conflicts of interest and are thereby prohibited.

The New York City Health and Hospitals Corporation has promulgated its own "Code of Ethics" which outlines the standards of conduct governing the relationship between private interests and the proper discharge of official duties of all personnel who are not covered by Chapter 68. Similar to Chapter 68, the New York City Health and Hospitals Corporation's Code of Ethics embodies an extensive recitation of acts that constitute conflicts of interest and are thereby prohibited. The Corporation has adopted the Code of Ethics with respect to its personnel and Directors who are not subject to Chapter 68.
The Board is committed to recognizing the Corporation's responsibility to organizational ethics and expects, therefore, every employee and Board member to support and adhere to the principles and policies set forth in Chapter 68 and the Code of Ethics.

Article 7.

Bank Accounts, Checks, Contracts and Investments

Section 7.01 Bank Accounts, Checks and Notes. The Board is authorized to select the banks or depositories it deems proper for the funds of the Corporation. The Board shall determine who shall be authorized from time to time on the Corporation’s behalf to sign checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, acceptances, notes or other evidences of indebtedness.

Section 7.02 Contracts. The Board may authorize any Officer or Officers, agent or agents, in addition to those specified in these By-Laws, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. Unless so authorized by the Board, no Officer, agent or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the Corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or render it liable for any purpose or to any amount.

Section 7.03 Investments. The funds of the Corporation may be retained in whole or in part in cash or be invested and reinvested from time to time in such property, real, personal or otherwise, or stocks, bonds or other securities, as the Board may deem desirable.

Article 8.

Miscellaneous

Section 8.01 Documents. There shall be kept at the office of the Corporation correct books of accounts of the activities and transactions of the Corporation, including a minute book, which shall contain a copy of the Certificate of Incorporation, a copy of these By-Laws, and all minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors.

Section 8.02 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be June 30.

Section 8.03 Corporate Seal. The corporate seal shall be circular in form and have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, the year of its organization, and the words “Corporate Seal” and “New York”. The seal shall be in the charge of the Secretary. If and when so directed by the Board, a duplicate of the seal may be kept and used by the Secretary or the Treasurer. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be affixed or impressed or reproduced in any other manner.
Article 9.

Dissolution

The Corporation may be dissolved only upon adoption of a plan of dissolution and distribution of assets by the Board that is consistent with the Certificate of Incorporation. Any nonjudicial dissolution shall be accomplished in accordance with Article 10 of the New York Not-For-Profit Corporation Law or any applicable successor statute or law.

Article 10.

Amendments

These By-Laws may be altered, amended, added to or repealed only by the Member.

Article 11.

Construction

In the case of any conflict between the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation and these By-Laws, the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation shall control.
